THE NEWSLETTER OF THE GREEN PARTY IN BECCLES, WORLINGHAM, NORTH COVE AND BARNBY

COUNTY COUNCIL ELECTION WIN FOR GREENS - THANK YOU!

A huge thank you to everyone in Beccles, Worlingham, North Cove and Barnby who put their faith in Elfrede and the Green Party in the County Council election in May.

It was a stunning win for Elfrede who was elected alongside Conservative Mark Bee to represent you on the County Council. Elfrede said, “It is a privilege to represent the residents of Beccles Division and I will do my very best to work for your interests over the coming four years.”

Elfrede has hit the ground running, supporting many residents with highways, strategic planning and other issues within the remit of the County Council. Speeding and parking are big issues for Beccles residents but education, provision for young people and maintenance of public spaces are high on the agenda as well. Elfrede has been given one of 12 spaces on the Education Scrutiny Committee and has certainly enjoyed the first few weeks of being a county councillor. If you would like to contact Elfrede, or any other Green Party councillors please see contact details on the rear of this newsletter.

Josi Horne, the other Green Party candidate, failed to get elected but did get an amazing 1446 votes!

STANDING UP FOR WHAT MATTERS

ELFREDE BRAMBLEY-CRAWSHAW

GENERAL ELECTION

Following Elfrede's County Council election victory she was immersed into the general election as the parliamentary candidate for Waveney. She performed extremely well at all the election hustings and won over many hearts but the first past the post voting system had an extreme impact on Green Party support in what is considered a marginal constituency. Elfrede finished fourth ahead of the LibDems and close behind UKIP. We are confident she will be back to try again!

DEPUTY MAYOR IN BECCLES

And just to ensure Elfrede was never left with nothing to do she was elected as Deputy Mayor for Beccles on 16 May.

She is working alongside the new mayor, Richard Stubbings, for the year until May 2018. Elfrede has enjoyed all the events she has attended so far, highlights include; welcoming children to Beccles from Belarus organised by the Beccles Chernobyl Children's Lifeline charity, fun at the Waveney Bee Keepers group, raising the flag above Beccles for the opening of Charter weekend, cutting the ribbon at the Waveney Centre's annual fashion show and attending Southwold and Felixstowe's civic ceremonies. If you would like the Mayor and Deputy Mayor to attend your event then please get in touch with Beccles Town Council on 01502 712109.
