

REMEMBER, YOU HAVE TWO VOTES

Beth Keys-Holloway

Geoff Wakeling

TWO VOTES - TWO GREENS

Beth has been a drama tutor at The Cut for 7 years, providing a source of education, entertainment, and inspiration to many children in the Halesworth area. This commitment to the arts has also lead Beth to work with the INK Literature Festival.

As a local farmer himself, Geoff understands the concerns of the farming community in the Halesworth area. He runs a YouTube channel to help educate people about sustainable agriculture. Geoff also volunteers his time to keep Halesworth a clean and pleasant place to be by participating in regular litter picks.

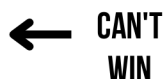

IT'S BETH AND GEOFF OR THE CONSERVATIVES

32% CON

31% GREEN

20% LDEM

CAN'T WIN HERE

17% LAB

CAN'T WIN HERE

2019 EAST SUFFOLK DISTRICT COUNCIL ELECTION - HALESWORTH RESULTS

WHY VOTE FOR BETH AND GEOFF?

1

BETH AND GEOFF CAN WIN

In the last local elections Halesworth residents elected Green Cllr Annette Dunning, votes for the Labour Party will not influence the result of this election

2

BETH AND GEOFF WORK HARD ALL YEAR ROUND

Beth and Geoff work hard for the community all year round and live in the ward. The Greens don't just appear at election time!

3

BETH AND GEOFF ARE PART OF A GREAT TEAM

Beth and Geoff have the support of a brilliant and growing team in Halesworth who make a big difference to the community.

ELECTION INFORMATION

Polling day is the 4th of May.

You will have two votes for two candidates, both can be Green.

There are eight polling stations in this ward:

Halesworth United Reform Church Hall
Halesworth Rifle Hall
Holton & Blyford Village Hall
Brampton Village Hall
Spexhall Village Hall
Wenhaston Village Hall
Westhall Village Hall
Wissett Village Hall

Your polling station is marked on your polling card.

You do not need your polling card to vote, but you will need photo ID to vote at this election. A driving licence or passport (even an expired one) will be accepted. See the back of your polling card for the full list.

Both Beth and Geoff are against the Roman Way development and want to challenge such proposals in the future. Now more than ever we need councillors to champion local community issues.

– Nick Hoare, local resident

Geoff and Beth have both been very supportive of the community bid for Holton Pits to keep it as a community space. Geoff has made a movie about the Pits, interviewing Alan Miller.

– Rachel Kellett, Holton

I am going to vote for Beth and Geoff, because they will bring a much needed fresh approach to local Government to help protect and improve our precious environment.

– Phillida Dwelly, Brampton

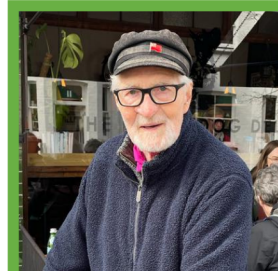

Geoff is an active member of our local community litterpicking group, 'Fight Dirty'. Geoff is, wholeheartedly, both farmer and nature's custodian. His commitment to sustainable practice is remarkable, while his approach is very much community focused.

– Ailsa MacDonald, Westhall

Beth is a keen supporter of many environmental issues and keen to preserve our precious local and wider environment. She is a well respected, kind and valuable friend and will be a powerful voice in our rapidly changing world.

– Julian Brooks, Halesworth

The Green party is active and caring, not just in Halesworth. It wants to help create a better world. So I give my support wholeheartedly to Geoff and Beth, we need our councillors to be hard working and committed.

– Tom Corbett, local resident

IT'S BETH AND GEOFF OR THE CONSERVATIVES HERE. VOTE FOR HARD WORK ALL YEAR ROUND.